Yeshiva Har Torah was founded by a group of concerned parents and community leaders. The tone was set for YHT to become a unique institution based upon an educational philosophy that sought to provide a child-centered program of instruction with the goal of meeting each student's individual needs in a warm and caring atmosphere. Starting with a Kindergarten and 1st grade and fewer than twenty students, the fine reputation that YHT established began to attract students rapidly. In 2005, the school moved from two rented locations to a new state-of-the-art facility (its current location at 250-10 Grand Central Parkway). As YHT continued to grow rapidly, the new facility was quickly outgrown and, in 2012 an additional floor was added. Today, with nearly 700 students (Pre-K – 8th Grade), Yeshiva Har Torah is recognized as one of the premiere educational institutions in the New York metropolitan area.
