

Mayor Eric Adams and Governor Kathy Hochul have announced a $200 million commitment to redevelop the Kingsbridge Armory. NYCEDC and the Kingsbridge Armory Community Working Group are excited to launch the Together for Kingsbridge Vision Plan.

The Vision Plan includes:

- A summary of the nine-month community engagement process that reached over 4,000 people through various public workshops, surveys, town halls, and more
- Community members' guiding principles for the future of the Armory, including economic and the creation of good jobs
- Priority industries and complementary uses that community members would like to see at the Armory
- Details of a forthcoming request for proposals (RFP) for development ideas
