

Brooklyn Marine Terminal Engagement by the Numbers

August 2024 through June 2025

In the last 11 months, the Vision for the Brooklyn Marine Terminal conducted 163 engagements with the Task Force, Advisory Groups, community stakeholders, NYCHA Red Hook Houses East and West, and the public to reenvision the Brooklyn Marine Terminal.

48

Public engagements including 27 workshops, 16 info and feedback sessions, 3 Town Halls, 2 surveys

23

Advisory Group individual and All-Hands meetings, joint Task Force meetings

33

Task Force meetings, office hours, small group discussions

9

NYCHA Red Hook Houses East and West tabling events, focus groups, feedback sessions

1,548

subscribers on the BMT listserv for weekly communication

4,265

people engaged and growing

13

Stakeholder focus groups and project briefings with small businesses, community associations, and organizations

11

Site tours with 198 members of the public, NYCHA residents, elected officials, and City agencies

5

Canvassing efforts in Red Hook with Green City Force

21

meetings with the BMT Task Force leadership

306

total hours of engagements

Learn more about the Brooklyn
Marine Terminal at edc.nyc/BMT

BMT

Managed by

NYC / EDC

New York City Economic Development Corporation