SUBLEASING CONSENT APPLICATION AND CHECKLIST

Important points for lessees requesting sublease-consents:

- NYCIDA will not review any request for sublease-consent if the Lessee is in default under its agreements with NYCIDA.
- As part of its review of any request for sublease-consent, NYCIDA will perform an internal background investigation check on any proposed sublessee(s), which must be passed prior to NYCIDA granting sublease-consent.
- If NYCIDA consents to the requested sublease, the Lessee's PILOT bill will increase since the PILOT attributable to the subleased premises will be pro-rated to equal full-taxes.
- Any costs incurred in fulfilling the requirements stated on this Subleasing Consent Application and Checklist will be entirely the responsibility of the Lessee to pay. For example, if the Lessee is the beneficiary of tax-exempt bonds issued by NYCIDA, the cost of obtaining an opinion of nationally-recognized bond counsel will be at the Lessee's expense.

Additional requirements arising from bond financings:

- Consent of Bond Trustee. The Lessee must additionally obtain the consent of the bond trustee for proposed subleasings. Where the bondholder is acting as its own fiscal agent and there is no bond trustee, the Lessee must obtain consent directly from the bondholder. The Agency's consent will be expressly conditioned upon obtaining the bond trustee's consent, and it will be the responsibility of the Lessee to obtain such consent.
- Tax-Exempt Financings. When the bond financing is tax-exempt (i.e., the bonds are private activity bonds), both the subletting and the subtenant must satisfy specific requirements in order to preserve the tax-exempt status of the bonds. These requirements, moreover, will vary according to the type of private activity bond (small issue, 501(c)(3), etc.). In connection with the satisfaction of these requirements, the Agency will require the Lessee to obtain an opinion of nationally recognized bond counsel, an opinion that the proposed subleasing will not disqualify the tax-exempt status of the bonds. The Lessee will be required to pay the fees and disbursements of such bond counsel. If a Lessee's bonds are tax-exempt, the Lessee should inform the Agency of this fact when it makes request for subleasing consent.
